Description	The long jump is a track and field event where athletes sprint down a runway and jump as far as possible into a sandpit. It requires a combination of speed, strength, and technique. In a long jump competition, athletes typically have a set number of attempts, usually around six, to achieve their best distance. Each jump is measured from the takeoff point to the nearest mark made in the sand by any part of the athlete's body. The competition is governed by rules regarding fouls, which occur if an athlete steps beyond the foul line at takeoff or if they touch the ground in or beyond the landing area before the measurement is made. Judges ensure that the jumps are legal and measure the distances accurately. The athlete with the longest legal jump wins the competition. Long jump competitions are commonly featured in track and field events at all levels, from local meets to international championships like the Olympics, where athletes showcase their skill and athleticism in this dynamic event.

Description	"Throwput" is a fast-paced, physical game that combines elements of volleyball, dodgeball, and handball. It is played with a special inflatable ball, typically brightly colored and lightweight, which players throw, catch, and pass to score points. The game is designed to be easy to set up and play in various environments, such as parks, beaches, or gymnasiums. The objective of Throwput is to score points by throwing the ball into the opposing team's goal area, similar to scoring a goal in soccer. Players can only take a limited number of steps while holding the ball before they must pass or throw it to a teammate. Opponents can intercept or block throws, adding an element of strategy and skill to the game. Throwput can be played with teams of varying sizes, making it suitable for small groups or larger gatherings. Its dynamic and energetic nature appeals to players of all ages and skill levels, promoting teamwork, coordination, and physical activity. The game's simplicity and versatility contribute to its popularity in both casual and competitive settings.

Description	The high jump is a track and field event in which athletes aim to clear a horizontal bar at increasing heights without knocking it down. It's a staple of both indoor and outdoor track and field competitions. Athletes typically use a curved approach to generate momentum before jumping. They employ a variety of techniques, including the straddle, the Western roll, the Fosbury flop, and the scissors jump. Of these, the Fosbury flop, introduced by American Dick Fosbury in the 1960s, is the most widely used technique due to its efficiency. Competitions follow a format where athletes have multiple attempts to clear the bar at each height, with those who fail to do so being eliminated. The last athlete remaining after all others have been eliminated is declared the winner. High jump competitions often captivate audiences due to the dramatic nature of athletes leaping over ever-increasing heights. Records are frequently broken as athletes continuously refine their techniques and push the boundaries of human capability in this exhilarating event.

Description	Tennicoit, also known as ring tennis or tennikoit, is a popular sport played globally, particularly in countries like India, Sri Lanka, and parts of Europe. It involves two teams, each consisting of two players, who compete to score points by hitting a rubber ring over a net using a tennicoit racket. The objective is to land the ring within the opponent's court, similar to tennis or volleyball. Tennicoit competitions typically follow a tournament format, with teams competing in singles, doubles, or mixed doubles matches. Matches are played in a best-of-three sets format, with each set played to a predetermined number of points. Competitors in tennicoit tournaments often display exceptional hand-eye coordination, agility, and strategic thinking. The sport requires precise timing and skillful manipulation of the racket to control the trajectory of the ring. Tennicoit competitions can range from local club events to regional, national, and even international tournaments, drawing participants and spectators alike. These events not only promote physical fitness and friendly competition but also foster camaraderie among players and enthusiasts of the sport.

Description	Tambola, also known as Housie or Bingo, is a popular game of chance played with numbered tickets and counters. In a Tambola competition, participants purchase tickets containing a grid of numbers. The game is typically conducted by a host who randomly draws numbers from a container or uses a random number generator. As numbers are called out, participants mark off corresponding numbers on their tickets. The objective of the game is to mark off all the numbers in a predetermined pattern, such as a full house, a row, or a column, before any other participant. The first person to complete the pattern declares "Tambola" or "Housie" and wins the prize. Tambola competitions are often organized as social events in various settings such as community centers, clubs, schools, or as fundraisers for charitable causes. They provide entertainment and opportunities for socializing while also offering the chance to win prizes. These competitions may feature various themes, special rounds, or jackpot prizes to add excitement to the game. Overall, Tambola competitions are a fun way to bring people together for a thrilling game of chance.

Description	Kabaddi, a traditional South Asian sport, has gained international recognition with competitive tournaments held worldwide. Kabaddi competitions typically involve two teams, each comprising seven players. The game is played on a rectangular court, divided into two halves. One team sends a raider into the opponent's half to tag as many defenders as possible and return safely to their half within a single breath, all while chanting "kabaddi, kabaddi" to prove they're not inhaling. Meanwhile, the defenders strive to tackle the raider and prevent them from returning. Points are scored when the raider successfully tags opponents or if defenders manage to hold the raider until they run out of breath. Kabaddi requires agility, strength, and strategic thinking, making it an exhilarating spectacle for spectators. Competitions range from local and regional tournaments to international championships, such as the Kabaddi World Cup and Asian Kabaddi Championships, attracting top teams from around the globe. These events not only showcase the athleticism and skill of the players but also celebrate the rich cultural heritage associated with this ancient sport.
